

McCormick's Certificate in Latinx Theology and Ministry is a contextual program that provides practical, vocational, biblical and theological training to help sharpen ministry skills for ministers and lay leaders.

McCormick's values position McCormick to be the leading seminary for Latinx theological education. The Center for the Study of Latinx Theology and Ministry is committed to providing academic programs aimed at strengthening the formation and renewal of Latinx theological education, church leaders, and congregation.

Topics and Instructors

This Certificate Program offers contextual courses that are grounded in student's on-going ministry work and promote theological depth and practical application. Courses are taught in a bi-lingual context.

The program will cover the following subjects:

- Practical theology & Models to do practical theology
- Bibliographical research
- Bible
- Ministry
- Latinx Theology

Apply Today

Our Faculty

Student Reflections

McCormick
Impacting the World

Courses of Study

- Introduction to the Tasks of Latinx Practical Theology
- Latinx Communities and Congregations
- Reading the Bible through Cultural Eyes
- Theology a la Latinx
- The Practices of Latinx Ministry (Christian Education, Pastoral Care, Preaching)
- Ministerial Leadership in the Latinx Church

Admission to the Program

Enrollment into this certificate program is open to the public. There are no post-secondary education (bachelor's degree or higher) or theological education requirements for admission to these programs.

- Application with general contact and church and/or organization information,
- a 1-2 page essay describing one's current role in the church/community/organization and reasons for applying to the certificate program,
- a $50 deposit, applied to the tuition of the first course.

Tuition/Investment

To receive the certificate, The Certificate in Latinx Theology and Ministry program requires the successful completion of all six courses. The cost is $350 per course.

Dr. Leslie Diaz-Perez

Director, El Centro Center for the Study of Latinx Theology and Ministry

Priscilla Rodriquez

Coordinator for the Academic Affairs Centers

For more information, please contact the Center for the Study of Latinx Theology and Ministry at McCormick Theological Seminary at 773-947-6310.

CONTACT US TODAY!

