

The Master of Arts in Ministry (M.A.M.)—Spanish track is a degree program that provides students with theological education to ministers for whom the Master of Divinity is not required by their churches or denominations, lay leaders and those serving in the Latinx community and congregations who are interested in general or specialized forms of ministry. Intentionally contextualized in the Latinx/Hispanic experience, the courses in the program are grounded in theological, historical, social, and cultural reflection and will help prepare students for cultural challenges as well as strengthen their work associated with ministering in Latinx/Hispanic communities.

Language

Courses are offered in Spanish with bilingual instructors.
